

1243-1254

1912 Dates J-BK

Italy & Germany
Flight of Innocent IV to Lyons.

Emperor was deposed by the pope.
spiritual prince elected HEINRICH RASPE (1246-1247) landgrave of Thuringia.

1243-1254

181st pope Innocent IV
Genoa, Italy. He reconvened the 4th General Council at Lyons, France, by which Frederick II, emperor of Germany, was excommunicated and deposed (1245)

C 1243

1212 Dates J-BK

England.
Only Aquitaine and Gascony of the French possessions of the ANGEVINES was retained by Henry

1243

Henry III of England surrenders claims in Poitou. Innocent IV pope; takes up quarrel with Frederick.

1243-1254

Innocent IV (c. 1190-1254) was pope.
He clashed with Emperor Frederick II
over the temporal power of the papacy.
And was forced to flee to LYONS, France until Frederick's death. He worked for the unification of the CHRISTIAN Church.

1243

Struggle of Pope Innocent IV with Emperor Frederick